Celebrate Your Special Day

Sequestered on over 80 acres of oak forests, open meadows and gardens, this natural haven provides a sense of tranquility that's often missing from the frenzy surrounding a wedding.

If you are looking for a rustic outdoor wedding venue, then you have found perhaps one of the best on the Central Coast. The property and gorgeous outdoor amphitheater are the ideal image of what a California Wine Country Farm looks like. Each of our venues offer the ideal location for you to implement your DIY ideas and have a great time doing it!

Dancing Deer Farm is hard to compare to other venues since we are so very different from the traditional.

When you visit you will find that there is truly something special about this property and its' atmosphere that you can't quite describe. There is a peace and tranquility seldom found anywhere else.
